Q1 2017

VMware vCloud® Air™ Network Program

VMware® is the market leader in virtualization, which is the key enabling technology for building public clouds. More than 500,000 customers — including 100% of the Fortune 100 — trust VMware as their virtualization infrastructure platform. By offering VMware-based cloud services, you are positioned to deliver enterprise-class security and infrastructure compatibility based on the same technology as your customers' internal IT infrastructure.

The VMware vCloud Air Network Program enables the success of your public cloud by providing you with an OpEx strategy for investing in VMware infrastructure on a pay as you go, pay as you grow consumption model. The VMware vCloud Air Network Program is the ideal solution for various types of VMware partners who offer hosted services to 3rd parties, such as Infrastructure as a Service (IaaS) Providers, Cloud Service Providers, Application Service Providers (ASPs), Internet Service Providers (ISPs), and Platform as a Service (PaaS) Providers.

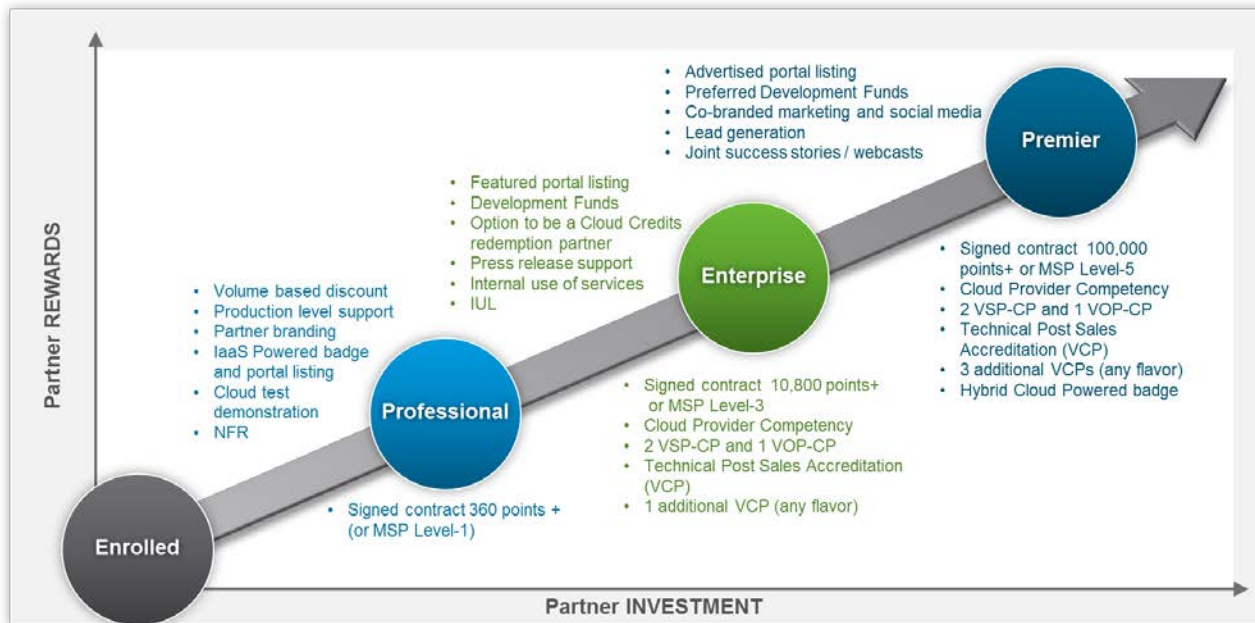

Follow the flow chart below to determine if the VMware vCloud Air Network Program is the right VMware partner program for your company:
