Live Online virtual classrooms offer interactive, remote learning

“Live Online” is a virtual classroom accessible from any location. It combines the best of VMware Education Services traditional instructor-led training with an interactive, immersive learning environment. Live Online participants will experience the same curriculum, hands-on-labs environment and real-time instructor engagement as the classroom experience. The only difference is that VMware Instructor will be online, in real-time, versus being with you in person. Multiple Live Online sessions are offered each week so that you can participate when convenient for you. Get the skills you need, in the most efficient time possible – all without leaving your desk.

Special Offer: Enroll in a Fast Track course “Live Online”, get two exam vouchers

If you have not taken a “Live Online” course before or are familiar with the format, we would like to invite you to take advantage of a unique offer. Enroll in any of our current Fast Track courses and receive two complementary Certification exam vouchers – a $375 USD value! Remote certification exam proctoring is now available. Please contact the VMware Certification Operations Team or click here for additional details. No promotional code required at the time of purchase.
