Coronavirus Disease (COVID-19) Notice

VMware requests that if you are aware that you may be at risk of having, or being in contact with someone who has the Coronavirus, that you contact your VMware Education representative and discuss training delivery options other than attending classroom based delivery. VMware will not apply its cancellation terms if you cancel your registration for this reason. Please refer to the World Health Organization (WHO), the Center for Disease Control (CDC) and your local government authorities for further information.