

VMware Learning Credits

VMware Learning

VMware Learning delivers training and certification programs designed to help customers achieve their desired business outcomes. We help them build skills and best practices to identify and leverage the unique opportunities made possible by VMware technology, and gain real business value through a better understanding of the capabilities of VMware solutions.

How Learning Credits Work

Credits account must be activated before credits can be used.

Credits expire one calendar year from date of purchase even if the Credits account has not been activated.

Credits can be redeemed for VMware training courses and certifications delivered by VMware, as well as training delivered through the VMware Authorized Training Center (VATC) program.

One (1) credit can be redeemed for $100 USD off VMware list price services. Instructions for redeeming credits can be found at VMware Learning Credits.

VMware® customers who invest in training recognize specific benefits from their VMware software and solutions, including accelerated proficiency, faster product adoption and increased return on investment. These benefits are even more evident when managed by VMware certified IT staff.

VMware Learning Credits allow customers to prepay for VMware training and certification. Learning Credits are available at the time of license purchase or as a standalone purchase. Customers can schedule training when and how they need it, helping to manage costs and improve allocation of training dollars.

Benefits of Learning Credits
