

VMware Cloud Director™ service

Sub-processors

Last Updated: May 10, 2023

VMware may hire other companies to provide certain services on its behalf. Sub-processors who may process Content (as defined in the Terms of Service) are itemized below. VMware affiliates may also process Content. As set forth in the Data Processing Addendum, VMware has adequate data transfer mechanisms in place with each sub-processor. The list below does not apply to pre-release versions.

Sub-processor	Country	Services Performed
Amazon Web Services, Inc.	USA	Hosting provider and platform services
Twilio, Inc.	USA	Email delivery service

VMware may use additional sub-processors for customer support – see the sub-processor listing for VMware Global Support Services
