VMware (or third parties engaged by VMware) audits its compliance against data protection and information security standards on a regular basis. The specific audits, and the data protection and information security certifications VMware has achieved, will necessarily vary depending upon the nature of the Services in question. Upon Customer's written request, and subject to obligations of confidentiality, VMware will make available to Customer a summary of its most recent relevant audit report and/or other documentation reasonably required by Customer which VMware makes generally available to its customers, so that Customer can verify VMware's compliance with this DPA.

9.3 DPIAs and Prior Consultations. To the extent required by Data Protection Law, VMware will, upon reasonable notice and at Customer's expense, provide reasonably requested information regarding the Services to enable Customer to carry out data protection impact assessments ("DPIAs") and/or prior consultations with data protection authorities.

9.4 Legal Disclosure Requests. If VMware receives a legally binding request for the disclosure of Personal Data which is subject to this DPA, such request will be dealt with in accordance with the Agreement.

10.2 Conflicts. In the event of any conflict between this DPA and any privacy-related provisions in the Agreement, the terms of this DPA will prevail.

10.3 Modification and Supplementation. VMware may modify the terms of this DPA as provided in the Agreement, in circumstances such as (i) if required to do so by a supervisory authority or other government or regulatory entity, (ii) if necessary to comply with Data Protection Law, or (iii) to implement or adhere to standard contractual clauses, approved codes of conduct or certifications, binding corporate rules, or other compliance mechanisms, which may be permitted under Data Protection Law. GDPR Supplemental Measures Addendum to Data Processing Addendum

This GDPR Supplemental Measures Addendum (“Supplemental Measures Addendum”) supplements the Data Processing Addendum (“DPA”) and reflects the supplemental measures of VMware to the extent that VMware processes Personal Data within the scope of GDPR on behalf of Customer as set forth in the DPA. Nothing in this supplemental is intended to restrict the commitments set forth in the DPA. All capitalized terms not defined in this Supplemental Measures Addendum will have the meanings set forth in the DPA.

1. Warranty

1.1 VMware warrants that it has no reason to believe that the laws and practices in the third country of destination applicable to the processing of the Personal Data by VMware, including any requirements to disclose Personal Data or measures authorizing access by public authorities, prevent VMware from fulfilling its obligations under Section 2. This is based on the understanding that laws and practices that respect the essence of the fundamental rights and freedoms and do not exceed what is necessary and proportionate in a democratic society to safeguard one of the objectives listed in Article 23(1) of Regulation (EU) 2016/679, are not in contradiction with this Section 1.

1.2 VMware agrees to notify you promptly if, after having agreed to Section 1.1 and for the duration of the Agreement, it has reason to believe that it is or has become subject to laws or practices not in line with the requirements under Section 1.1, including following a change in the laws of the third country or a measure (such as a disclosure request) indicating an application of such laws in practice that is not in line with the requirements in Section 1.1.

1.3 Following a notification pursuant to Section 1.2, or if you otherwise have reason to believe that VMware can no longer fulfil its obligations under Section 1, you shall promptly identify appropriate measures (e.g., technical or organizational measures to ensure security and confidentiality) to be adopted by you and/or as requested by you to be implemented by VMware in accordance with Section 2.3.1 of the DPA. You shall suspend the data transfer if you consider that no appropriate safeguards for such transfer can be ensured, or if instructed by the competent supervisory authority to do so. In this case, you shall be entitled to terminate the Agreement, insofar as it concerns the processing of Personal Data under this Section 1.

2. Notification in case of Required Disclosures and direct access

2.1 If we are required by a subpoena, court order, agency action, or any other legal or regulatory requirement to disclose any of Your Content (a “demand”) or where we become aware of any direct access by public authorities to Personal Data transferred pursuant to our Agreement, unless legally prohibited from doing so, we will:

- (i) provide you with notice and a copy of the demand as soon as practicable,
- (ii) inform the relevant government authority that we are a service provider acting on your behalf and all requests for access to Your Content should be directed in writing to the contact person you identify to us (or if no contact is timely provided, we will direct the relevant governmental authority generally to your legal department), and
- (iii) only provide access to Your Content with your authorization.

2.2 Where permissible under the laws of the country of destination, VMware agrees to provide you, at regular intervals for the duration of the Agreement, with as much relevant information as possible on the requests received (in particular, number of requests, type of data requested, requesting authority /ies, whether requests have been challenged and the outcome of such challenges, etc.).

2.3 VMware agrees to preserve the information pursuant to Section 1 for the duration of the Agreement and make it available to the competent supervisory authority on request.

2.4 Sections 2.1 and 2.2 are without prejudice to the obligation of VMware pursuant to Section 1.2 to inform you promptly where it is unable to comply with these Clauses.

3. Review of legality and data minimization in case of public authority access requests

3.1 If we are required by a subpoena, court order, agency action, or any other legal or regulatory requirement to disclose any of Your Content (a “demand”), we will review the legality of the request for disclosure (whether it remains within the powers granted to the requesting public authority), and challenge the request if we consider that there are reasonable grounds to consider that the request is unlawful under the laws of the country of destination, applicable obligations under international law, and principles of international comity.

3.2 When challenging a request, VMware shall seek interim measures with a view to suspending the effects of the request until the competent judicial authority has decided on the merits of the case. It shall not disclose the Personal Data requested until required to do so under the applicable procedural rules. These requirements are without prejudice to VMware’s obligations to notify you if VMware has reason to believe that it is or has become subject to laws or practices not in line with the requirements of Section 1.1.

3.3 We will document our legal assessment and any challenge to the request for disclosure and, to the extent permissible under the laws of the country of destination, make the documentation available to the you. We shall make our assessment available to the competent supervisory authority on request.

3.4 We agree to provide the minimum amount of information permissible when responding to a request for disclosure, based on a reasonable interpretation of the request.
